Conditions Precedent to Liability

Changes in circumstances

You must immediately tell us about any change in your circumstances. In particular you must tell us if there is a change to:

- the address of the property insured;
- the use of the property (including if the property becomes unoccupied).
- the type of tenant occupying the property
- the property's structure
- total cost of rebuilding the property, total cost of replacing the contents

Maintenance and safety requirements

- A current Gas Safety Record must have been issued and complied with and a CORGI-registered contractor must inspect and service all gas appliances at least every 12 months. Also, any necessary repairs and maintenance must be carried out promptly by a CORGI-registered contractor.
- A qualified electrical contractor must inspect or have inspected and checked the electrical systems in accordance with the Landlords Electrical appliances and sockets regulations (1994) or any subsequent new regulations, within the last five years and retested every five years.
- If furnished, all upholstered furniture must meet the Fire and Furniture Regulations Act. Any furniture added to the property after 1 March 1993 must keep to the relevant fire resistance requirements.
- You must give your tenants all relevant instruction manuals.
- You must keep records of all checks and work that has been carried out. We must be able to inspect these records.

Flat roof

All flat roof sections must be less than 10 years old.

If the above condition precedent is not complied with all liabilities for claims for damage to or arising as a result of the flat roof are excluded.

How we settle your claim

Buildings (other than individual flats) - We will pay the cost to repair or replace the damaged property providing the buildings were in a good state of repair before the incident giving rise to the damage and the sum insured is at least the same as the cost of rebuilding the buildings.

Individual Flats - We will pay the cost to repair or replace the damaged property providing the buildings were in a good state of repair before the incident giving rise to the damage and the sum insured is at least the same as the cost of rebuilding the buildings. If for any reason we cannot replace or repair the damaged property we may at our option pay an amount, not exceeding what it would have cost to replace or repair the damaged property, up to the sum insured. Please note that we do not insure any common parts

Contents - we will replace the damaged contents as new, as long as the sum insured is at least equal to the cost of replacing all the contents. However we may at our option; pay the cost of replacing the item as new, or pay the cost of repairing any item.
